Sac High Celebrates 150 Years

The 150 Year Anniversary Celebration continues with several events scheduled throughout the 2006-2007 school year. The most recent event was the St. HOPE Holiday Basketball Classic, which was a big success due in part to the turnout from the Class of 2004 who were home for the Holidays. We hope this annual event will become a gathering place for veteran and recent alumni alike to meet up with old friends and make new ones.

Alumni Guest Speakers

Various Sac High Alumni have been invited back to their alma mater as guest speakers for classes in different subject areas. With one of the largest Alumni populations around, it is not surprising that several Sac High Alumni have become very successful in just about any and every profession. Throughout the month of January, a few of these Alums will come back to share their experiences and knowledge with current Sac High students. For more information about how you can become involved, please contact the Alumni Association.

Alumni Weekend

Hundreds of Sac High Alumni from all generations will reunite this April 2007 during the Alumni Weekend. Daily events are scheduled from April 12-16 in Sacramento beginning Thursday evening with a private mixer at one of Sacramento's newest lounges, The Park Downtown.

The festivities continue on Friday, April 13 with a sneak preview of the Best of Sac High art exhibit at the 40 Acres Art Gallery and Cultural Center. The night is sure to be entertaining with food, music and a special screening of the Sac High video celebrating 150 Years.

The most anticipated event will take place on Saturday, April 14 with the "Alumni Soiree". Come out to visit with Alumni from your class and decade at the biggest reunion of the century. There will be food and dancing as Sac High is transformed into a majestic ballroom.

The weekend's events will conclude on Sunday, April 15 with a brunch at one of Sacramento's finest restaurants, the Riverside Clubhouse. The perfect way to say farewell to old and new friends over brunch on a beautiful outdoor patio.
