Sac High Open House & Alumni Center Grand Opening

Following on the heels of the Turkey Day Game, Sac High will host an Open House for Alumni and the general public, to take a walk through the history of Sac High and view historic artifacts and memorabilia that will be prominently displayed throughout the school. The Alumni Center will also celebrate its Grand Opening, and will be available for guests to purchase Sac High apparel and commemorative items including yearbooks.

Alumni of the Month - Jim Breech

Many remember Jim Breech from his Turkey Day Game glory at Sac High. A 1974 graduate of Sac High, Jim went on to become a place kicker at the University of California at Berkeley and in the NFL where he played for the Oakland Raiders and Cincinnati Bengals.

He was drafted by the Detroit Lions in 1978 and signed with the Oakland Raiders later that year. After playing one year with the Raiders, he signed with the Cincinnati Bengals where he remained from 1980-1992. Jim Breech was a proud participant of Super Bowls XVI and XXIII.

Currently, Jim is one of the founders of the Superstar Program with Athletes in Action and is a motivational speaker to thousands of high school and junior high school students.

Jim now lives in West Chester, Ohio with his wife, Denise. They have nine children and seven grandchildren.
